Outcomes of the Workshop Should be Taken Seriously

Former TRNC Parliamentary Spokesperson and Dr. Fazıl Küçük Foundation Honorary President Dr. Sibel Siber also delivered a speech at the said event. In her speech, Dr. Siber highlighted the problems in the current system and added that during the workshop, academicians, bureaucrats, and politicians examined causes of the current structure of the country and discussed possible solution models with great maturity and commitment. Dr. Siber also added that rather than those who thrive on desperation and hopelessness, those who support rational solutions will be needed within the society. Dr. Siber also recommended that detailed outcomes of the workshop are taken seriously by the government and evaluated at a commission consisting of officials who would take active roles in the recommended system.

Not Sustainable

Workshop Coordinator Assoc. Dr. Deniz İşçiöğlü provided information on the workshop and extended conference report. Assoc. Prof. Dr. İşçiöğlü stated that academicians from Italy, TRNC and Turkey provided their views on the presidential and parliamentary systems, and that the report contains summaries of their views without any interpretations. Stating that the workshop has not reached an ultimate recommendation pointing one system over the other, Assoc. Prof. Dr. İşçiöğlü added that all views have been reflected in the report. Assoc. Prof. Dr. İşçiöğlü concluded her speech by stating that according to the outcomes of the workshop, the current system is not sustainable and that all participants highlighted the problems in the patronage system, lack of quality and inspection mechanisms and the election system.

WARWICK UNIVERSITY POSTGRADUATE OPPORTUNITY AT EMU

Opportunity To Do A Postgraduate At One Of England’s Top Ten Universities

Since 2011, postgraduate (MSc) programs in Engineering Business Management and Supply Chain and Logistics Management have been offered on the Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU) campus with EMU and Warwick University collaboration. Warwick University is ranked eighth in England according The Guardian’s 2019 university rankings and 54th in the world according to the Times Higher Education university rankings. The programs mentioned above present an opportunity for students to obtain a postgraduate degree at one of the world’s best universities.

MEDITERRANEAN
UNIVERSITY

These highly prestigious MSc degrees can be completed in just one full year of academic study on the EMU campus. Students are also provided the option of completing 2 of their 9 compulsory modules at Warwick University in England or Warwick University Centers at other overseas locations, subject to visa requirements. The diploma obtained after completion of the program is a Warwick University diploma identical to that presented to students receiving their education at the university’s campus in England.

Previous students of the program have come from a wide-range of backgrounds, including engineering, business, tourism, architecture and information technology. In all cases the students have been motivated by the desire to gain not only a top class world-renowned degree but also practical knowledge and skills required by high level executives.

If you would like to learn more about this opportunity and are considering to apply for the 2018-2019 Academic Year Fall Semester, please feel free to visit the WMG-EMU office located at the EMU Faculty of Business and Economics (BE252) between 09:00 and 17:00 during week days. Extensive information can also be obtained from the website warwick.emu.edu.tr or via the e-mail address warwick.emu@emu.edu.tr.

EMU FACULTY OF PHARMACY MARKS THE WORLD HAND HYGIENE DAY

Eastern Mediterranean University, Faculty of Pharmacy organised an awareness raising activity on the World Hand Hygiene Day. Within the scope of the project, Ozioma Onyedikachukwu Ezeofor, Faculty of Pharmacy student, whose thesis is on 'Awareness of Hand Hygiene among University Students', distributed the brochures she prepared with her friends to the students of EMU. Ozioma showed other students how to ensure hand hygiene by rubbing hands at a stand opened in front of CL building. Participated by students, the event hosted colourful scenes.

Prevents Infectious Diseases

EMU Faculty of Pharmacy released a statement on hand hygiene which reads as follows. "Hand hygiene is ensured by cleaning (rubbing) hands with alcohol-based antiseptic products or washing hands with soap. In order to prevent the spread of infectious diseases among individuals, we need to have clean hands. If you are planning to clean your hands with antiseptic products, you need to rub hands with the said products for at least 20-30 seconds. If you are using soap for this purpose, this period should be between 40 and 60 seconds. We must pay attention to touching every part of the hand during the application of these methods. Hand hygiene is the simplest, least expensive and most effective strategy used for the prevention of infections and limiting the transmission of microorganisms from person to person or from one surface to another. During the upcoming years, we plan to raise awareness among the students of EMU regarding the importance of hand hygiene.
