Commencing with opening speeches, the first session of the seminar was held with the participation of EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Hasan Kılıç, EMU Vice Rectors Prof. Dr. Osman M. Karatepe, Prof. Dr. Sonuç Zorlu and Prof. Dr. Ali Öztüren, EMU General Secretary Derviş Ekşici, Rector’s Office Coordinators, Administrative Directors, Faculty Deans, Department Chairs, academic and administrative personnel and, many students.

“A Huge Opportunity for the Participants”

In his opening address, EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Hasan Kılıç expressed the university’s contentment on once again hosting Ahmet Şerif İzgören at the Eastern Mediterranean University. Noting that İzgören served as an academic staff member at EMU who had delivered various seminars at the university, Prof. Dr. Kılıç emphasized this seminar would be a huge opportunity for the participants. Stating that the said seminar would highlight how education goes beyond simply conveying information, as educators play a crucial role in inspiring young generations and guiding their lives. Prof. Dr. Kılıç underscored that such events support both personal growth and societal advancement. He expressed his gratitude to everyone who contributed to the organization of the event and sincerely thanked Ahmet Şerif İzgören for his valuable insights.

“Your Fighting Spirit, Honesty, Morals and Discipline is the Path to Your Success”

Taking the stage following EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Kılıç, Ahmet Şerif İzgören emphasized the path to success is through the combination of right thoughts and actions by saying; “The points where thought and action intersects are crucial. What you do is not important, however how you do that is important”. Sharing success stories with the participants, İzgören expressed; “Your fighting spirit, honesty, morals and discipline is the path to your success”, stressing the significant guiding role of these values. Noting that the education quality of EMU has the power to impact the sense of education all around the island. İzgören said; “EMU is the cornerstone of education in here. If you enhance education here, you will concurrently advance the quality of education around the island”. Furthermore, İzgören underlined that educators are guides shaping the lives of youth and that the opportunities EMU offers do not only support their personal developments but also the social advancement.

On the second day of the event, principals, assistant principals and school counsellors operating under the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC) Ministry of Education, Department of General Secondary Education and Department of Occupational Technical Education attended the seminar. During this session, the role of educators and ways of inspiring young generations were discussed.

During the seminar, Ahmet Şerif İzgören provided valuable insights on personal development, leadership and methods for creating a difference in education. At the end of the events, EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Hasan Kılıç presented Ahmet Şerif İzgören a plaque and a souvenir. The event concluded with a photo shoot.

“YOUTH AND FUTURE” DISCUSSED WITH ABBAS GÜÇLÜ AT EMU

A talk event with Abbas Güçlü was held as part of the “13th International Career Days” organized by the Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU) Alumni Communication and Career Research Directorate (MIKA). Held on Wednesday, 5 March 2025 at 02:30 p.m. at Mustafa Afşin Ersoy Hall, the event received great participation for the students. Güçlü answered the questions of youngsters while discussing the topic of “Youth and Future”.

The interactive talk, where participants had the opportunity to benefit from Abbas Güçlü’s experiences, was attended by EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Hasan Kılıç, Former EMU Rector Prof. Dr. Abdullah Y. Öztoprak, Vice Rectors Prof. Dr. Osman M. Karatepe, Prof. Dr. Salih Katircioğlu, Prof. Dr. Sonuç Zorlu, and Prof. Dr. Ali Öztüren, General Secretary Derviş Ekşici, TRNC Ministry of National Education Inspectors Metin Harper and Mevhibe Harper, along with Rector’s Office Coordinators, faculty deans, department heads, academic staff, administrative personnel, and a large number of students.

“To Encourage and Inspire the Youth”
Delivering the opening speech of the talk, Prof. Dr. Kılıç touched on their contentment on hosting such an important figure at EMU and highlighted their pride in being with someone who could assist the young people in finding answers to their questions about the future during the event. Noting that the talk event, held within the scope of the “13th International Career Days”, would give young people the opportunity to ask questions about life, careers, society, and most importantly, their own futures, encouraging them to think critically, Prof. Dr. Kılıç highlighted that, at EMU, their aim is not just to provide theoretical knowledge to young people, but also to connect them with experts in their fields, allowing them to learn from their experiences.

Mentioning the significance of hosting Abbas Güçlü, an important figure who has over 40-years of experience in the field of journalism and TV, at EMU, Prof. Dr. Kılıç added that Abbas Güçlü, who has been writing a column on education for many years in Milliyet newspaper, is recognized as the journalist who builds the strongest connections with students and gives them the most voice in Türkiye. He pointed out that ‘Genç Bakış’, the discussion program hosted by Güçlü, is one of the most important educational programs. Prof. Dr. Kılıç expressed his belief that Güçlü, by sharing his personal experiences about life and career, would inspire and encourage young people. He also thanked everyone who contributed to organizing the event and wished for a fruitful conversation.

“Make Every Effort to Voice Your Concerns”

Conveying his pleasure on being at EMU, Abbas Güçlü provided information on ‘Genç Bakış’ show, stating that the strength of the program come from the youngsters. Adding that the said program is a platform where everyone freely shares their views, Güçlü underlined that people from every age group are among the followers of the show. Güçlü highlighted that when considering the dynamics of Cyprus, it is essential to acknowledge the presence of universities and recognize the value they add to the island. He mentioned that he has closely followed EMU since its establishment and emphasized that for forty years, he has been advocating for students in the field of education. Offering advice to students, Güçlü said; “Make every effort to voice your concerns. If you don’t express your issues, you won’t attract the attention of those who can solve them. Never stop speaking up. When you ask questions respectfully, you can receive answers to any question.” Güçlü stressed the importance of young people making their voices heard and encouraged them to “take control of your future.”

At the end of the talk event, Prof. Dr. Kılıç presented an appreciation plaque to Güçlü for their valuable contributions.

EMU RECTOR PROF. DR. HASAN KILIÇ RELEASES 8 MARCH - INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY MESSAGE

Eastern Mediterranean University (EMU) Rector Prof. Dr. Hasan Kılıç released a message on 8 March – International Women's Day. The message by Prof. Dr. Kılıç reads as follows:

“On 8 March – International Women's Day, I extend my heartfelt wishes to all the women, especially our female staff who have contributed to our university. The value that women bring to our lives, whether as mothers, wives, in the workplace, in our homes, or in society, is immeasurable. At our university, which prioritizes gender equality, more than 1,000 female staff members work alongside their male colleagues with commitment, contributing significantly to our institutional achievements. Additionally, many of our female staff hold leadership roles such as vice rectors, deans, department heads, directors, branch managers, unit leaders, and coordinators, playing a crucial role in ensuring our university's success. Eastern Mediterranean University, recognizing the importance of a woman's place in society, will continue to serve as an example in this regard.

I strongly condemn all forms of physical, sexual, psychological, and economic violence and discrimination against women. I celebrate this significant day once again, wishing for all women around the world to attain political, social, and economic freedom and equality, and extending my sincere respects.”
